Benefits of e-Advice Service

● Speedy and Secured

No delay due to postal delivery. Your transaction advices are sent to your designated email address automatically and timely once the transaction is done. The e-Advice is encrypted to protect your privacy.

● Space-saving and Convenient

Starting from the effective date of your e-Advice service application, you are able to receive your account statements and transaction advice via email and download them, so that you do not need to store and organize a large amount of paper notice.

● Simple Application Process and Free of Charge

You can submit your application online or offline, and the e-Advice service is free of charge without additional costs.
